G. Metzerott, John T. Lenman Henry Dickson, James L. Barbour, Richard H. Taylor, Horatio Browning, Wm. A. Gordon, Charles S Bradley and Francis Miller.

Mr. Palge, manager of the Hotel Kaaterskill, will be at the Riggs house on April 28th to see those who desire to engage rooms. Francis, the second son of Mr. Nicholas Watkins, assistant fereman of the Treasury branch of the government printing office, who resides at 447 H street northwest, died about 1 o'clock this morning of consumption. He was 18% years old. The death of Charles, another son of Mr. Watkins, 21 years old, is hourly expected from the same disease.

Mr. George R. Hulse, assistant baggage agent at the Baltimore and Potomac depot, this morning discovered on the corner of 9th and B streets southwest a dead white buby, and informed the police. The Jefferson Literary and Debating Society will give their annual entertainment for the benefit of their library on Friday, May 9th, at the hall of the Jefferson school building. An unusually interest-ing program has been arranged, including musical selections and readings by the best talent of the city, and two excellent farces, "To Oblige Benson" and "Dreadfully Alarming." THE Capital to-morrow will contain all the compositions by the public school pupils on "Kindness to Animals," which have been awarded prizes by the Humane society. The votes for the gentleman's dressing case at St. Patrick's fair will be counted at the Carroll Institute Monday night. The survivors of the old first army corps, Army of the Potomac, will meet at the rooms of the commissioner of pensions, corner 12th and Pennsylvania avenue, this evening, to make preliminary arrangements for their excursion to the battle-fields of the Rappahannock. The seventy-sixth anniversary of the birthday of Major John R. Bigelow, for the last fourteen years a clerk in the l'ension office, was celebrated last evening at his residence, 931 G street, and an elegant arm chair was presented to him by his fellow clerks; Dr. W. H. H. Warman making the presentation speech, and Mr. Daniel J. Waters reading a poem written for the occasion by S. A. Wiggin. The attention of the police has been called to the crowds of boys, in all parts of the city, who are daily climbing the young trees and despoiling them by breaking off the young and tender branches. This morning, in the Criminal Court, Judge Wylie, the district attorney entered a nolle pres in the two cases of Albert Fields for arson, in setting fire to the stable of A. P. Fardon in October, 1873, and house of Eliza Parker on August 6, 1874. There was a very large sale of seats to-day for the Wagner concert. When the sheet was opened at 8 o'clock a line of applicants extended out of Metzerott & Co's door nearly to 10th street.

Brownwood Park .- Messrs. Parker & Townsend, Brown commenced a new suburban enterprise near the city, on the Washington branch of the Baltimore and Obio railroad. The property consists of 115 acres of excellent gardening and fruit land, lying on the high slope west of the railroad, between the station at Clark Mills' and the station at Rives'. The elevation secures good drainage and fresh air, and affords many fine views of the surrounding country. Rives' station abuts upon the north end of the tract, and Mills' station is but a few rods from the south end of it. It is also reached very directly by the Bladensburg pike and by the Brentwood road, passing the National fair grounds, and by this road it is about three miles to the central portions of the city. There are sixteen passenger trains a day stopping at these stations, and the running time from the depot to Rives' station is ten
